Comments

“ I remember my aunt Doris fondly... I'll never forget the smell of her house. My father Harry who passed in 2008 was her youngest brother. Aunt Doris would pick me and my sisters up and have us stay the weekend. One time she took us all bowling... I got all strikes... she and the other bowling patrons couldn't believe it. I later came to find out from my mom (Katherine Hopkins who passed July 2019) that my dad was an excellent bowler... the pros even let him bowl with them! Thank you aunt Doris for opening your home and heart to us, I am eternally grateful!
